Burial Right Holder
When a burial site ¹ is paid for, there is no ownership of the actual site or land. Payment entitles the person nominated as the burial right holder to a burial right over the burial site ¹ which includes the following:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• An entitlement to be buried or inurned and to give consent for others to be buried or inurned;• Authority to grant consent for the inurnment of cremated remains or the reopening for a further burial;• Request Council to impose restrictions on its future use or to close it to future burials or inurnments; and• An entitlement, which is shared with the next of kin of the deceased, to apply for and be granted permission to erect or install a memorial.
¹ Any place in a local government cemetery set aside as a final resting place for the deceased including crypt, grave, mausoleum, niche, vault.
