Vehicle Parking or Permits

Types of Parking Permits

Resident Parking Permit where the person resides in a residence situated on a section of road and parking immediately adjacent to the residence is regulated by time, and the residence does not have adequate off-street parking. To be eligible for a resident parking permit, residents must be a primary owner occupier and/or tenant of the property. Eligible residents are entitled to one residential permit (non-transferable) for each vehicle registered to the address.

Community Service Organisation Parking Permit where the person will use the parking permit for an activity, which is consistent with the objectives of the community service organisation, and parking is regulated by time.

Temporary Parking Permit where it is not reasonably practical for the applicant to carry out the activity unless the designated parking space or spaces are allocated to the applicant's exclusive use for the duration of the activity.

Works Zone Parking Permit where the part of the road is adjacent to a site at which the person is proposing to undertake building or construction work, and it is not reasonably practical for all work activity and movements to be confined within the site.

Visitor Parking Permit where the parking permit is to be made available by the resident for use by another person who is visiting or attending at the residence.

Applications for Material Change of Use

DEFINITIONS

Use and gross floor area definitions are as per Schedule 1 of the Livingstone Planning Scheme.
Site area is all areas of the site utilised by the proposed use, not including landscaped areas.

MULTIPLE MATERIAL CHANGE OF USES

If a development application for a site includes two or more uses of the same activity type, the fee is the prescribed base fee for the use attracting the highest fee, plus the cost per fee for each use.

FEE CALCULATION (BASE FEE PLUS COST PER FEE)

The application fee is to be calculated as the Base Fee plus the cost per fee.

If there is no plus cost per fee for the specific use, only the base fee applies.

For example, for a Multiple dwelling, the fee is the base fee plus the cost per unit or room.
